LATE TELEGRAPHIC NEWS.

(From the JAPAN ADVERTISER.)

FORAKER AND TAFT AT A DEADLOCK.

SAN FRANCISCO, March 31.
The preliminary campaign for the Republican nomination for the Presidency has come to a deadlock. Both Senator Foraker and Secretary Taft seem to have an equally strong hold on party opinion.
It is not yet certain whether Senator Foraker seeks the nomination for himself or merely wishes to defeat Taft.

(An Senator Foraker has long been high in the party councils and no less than three times presented the name of the Republican nominee to the National Convention, the latter hypothesis seems more likely).

SLAUGHTER OF WOMEN AND CHILDREN.

SAN FRANCISCO, March 31.
The Rumanian military, not content with slaughtering the undoubted and unappeased peasants, have butchered great numbers of women and children in their determination to stamp out the rebellion.

SOUTH AFRICA AT PEACE.

SAN FRANCISCO, March 31.
The Damaland disturbances have been quieted. The Germans have subdued the rebellious natives and restored complete peace to their South African colonies.

RUSSIA HANGS BACK.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 1.
Russia is delaying the giving of an answer to England in regard to the disarmament proposition. England requested that Russia should unite with those nations which advocate the reduction of armament expenditure in order that something might be done about it at the coming session of The Hague Conference. It is regarded as significant that the prime mover of the first Conference should now be backward in the further development of the idea.

THE PEACE CONFERENCE THREATENED.

LONDON, March 30.
A despatch from St. Petersburg says that it is feared that the Peace Conference will be held in June will be delayed. Germany insists that unless England recommends her proposal concerning the limitation of armaments, she will secede from the Conference. On the other hand, unless this proposal is taken up for discussion, England will secede from the Conference. The Russian government is now trying to mediate between the two Powers.

THE SITUATION IN MOROCCO.

LONDON, March 29.
The French Government has formally preferred various demands against Morocco.
Italy has formally approved the French action in Morocco.

THE RUSSIAN SQUADRON.

LONDON, March 29.
The Russian Squadron left England for Libau to-day. The crews are highly gratified with the cordial welcome accorded the Squadron by England.

THE COLONIAL CONFERENCE.

LONDON, March 29.
The British Colonial Conference will be opened on April 15. The Premiers of various colonies have left for London. The principal problems to be discussed relate to the establishment of a federal assembly of the Empire, the extension of a preferential tariff for trade within the Empire, and Imperial defence.

THE RUSSIAN POLITICAL SITUATION.

LONDON, March 30.
A despatch from St. Petersburg says that the Russian Government continues unfavorably disposed towards the Constitutional Democratic Party. It is reminded that the Government has decided to dissolve the Duma.

GERMANY'S NAVAL NEEDS.

LONDON, March 30.
According to a despatch from Berlin, Count von Tirpitz has published a book advocating the increase of Germany's naval strength in order to extricate her from her present political embarrassment. With regard to the prospect of conflict between Japan and America and the probable attitude of England, he declares that Germany's future depends entirely upon her taking the right side at an opportune time.

RAILWAY DISASTER IN THE TRANSVAAL.

LONDON, March 15.
A passenger train has been wrecked at Alkmaar in the Transvaal. Eleven persons were killed, including Dr. Adam Janse, an ex-Commissioner of Lands.

BOER RAIDERS.

LONDON, March 14.
A telegram from Cape Town states that the sentences of death passed on Retief and Potgieter for having participated in the recent raid conducted by Pretoria have been commuted to fifteen years' imprisonment. Other raiders have been imprisoned for life.

DOGS AND DOCTORS.

Curious Case at Tokyo.

About the middle of next month, says the Japan Times, there will be an assembly of several dogs at the Tokyo Chiba Sailing-club, in connection with a dispute as to the identity of a dog. The litigation has been in progress for more than four years, and the parties concerned have spent more than a thousand yen, though the dog in dispute is worth no more than about ¥30. Last year the disputants, Mr. Hideji Onichi and Mr. Yoshiyasu Mori, both of whom are physicians, saw the folly of further continuing the litigation and were about to give the dog to a third party.
This attempt at compromise, however, has failed, and litigation has been resumed.
Mr. Onichi, the defendant, now argues that there are still living the mother, brother, and sister dogs of the one originally belonging to him and that the identity of his dog with the one in dispute can be established by bringing these dogs together. The Court has accepted the proposal and hence the conference of dogs is about to take place in the law court. The Court has also asked Dr. Fujino, zoologist, Dr. Tokisuga and Dr. Ishikawa, to witness the meeting of the dogs, and give a decision. The interested doctors have accepted the invitation so that it will be a conference not only of dogs but of doctors.

THE LANCERS.

Oh! the lancers, the lancers!
That whirling of dancers!
How you sing yourself with rapture in the vortex of the whirl!
How the tune grows maddeningly As you seize a spinning anafel Of parabolizing frillies that was once a stately girl!

With your beeps hard as iron,
You sustain each breathless strain, And you feel a hero's passion for the hottest of the fight.
Up the parquet you go ramping,
To a sound of frenzied stamping, And you nearly lost your bearings, till the music pulled you right.
When you rally for the "charging,"
For the scrimmaging and bawling, Your career by sillon ruminants you can usually trace;
But your partner, you can trust her, When her "owner" is turned and thrust her,
To return like ruffled pigeon to the ark of your embrace.
Till your manly brow is dripping With your tripping and your gripping In the final complication till the throbbing music's done.
Then your partner's sage advice is To secure two full-grown icos.
And you patch each other's tatters and proclaim it ripping fun!

eczema, you should test the value of Clarke's Blood Mixture, the world-famous Blood Purifier and Restorer. This medicine has 40 years' reputation, and is to-day more popular than ever, the reason of this being undoubtedly because this wonderful remedy does what it promises to do—CURES SKIN AND BLOOD DISEASES PERMANENTLY.

Blood
Mixture

EVER DISCOVERED.

impurities, from whatever cause arising. For SCROFULA, BAD LEGS, SORE THROAT, BLISTERS,
SPOTS, BLACKHEADS, ECZEMA, PIMPLES, and BLOOD POISON, SORES OF ALL ULCERS, KINDS.

It is a safe and Permanent Remedy.
It is the only real specific for Gout and Rheumatic Pains, for it removes the cause from beneficial effects are sufficient to give it a trial to test its value.

Thousands of wonderful cures have been effected by it.

TRIED MANY THINGS WITHOUT BENEFIT UNTIL I TOOK CLARKE'S BLOOD MIXTURE.
Mr. F. E. Lewis, 48, Bridge Street, New Orleans, writes:—Just a line in favour of "Clarke's Blood Mixture." I had eczema for seven months, and tried many things without benefit until I took your remedy. After the eighth bottle I was quite well again. Please accept this letter as a token of gratitude to your wonderful "Clarke's Blood Mixture."—June 18, 1903.

IMPROVEMENTS IN THE BLOOD.—We have seen hundreds of letters from all sorts and conditions of people, in which the writers acknowledge the benefit they have received from Clarke's Blood Mixture, which as a curative agent cannot be too highly estimated, since it cleanses and clears the blood from all impurities, and restores it to its normal condition. This is a good testimonial from the Family Doctor, the popular medical journal, which goes on to further say: "It is certainly the finest blood purifier that science and skill have brought to light, and we can with the utmost confidence recommend it to our subscribers and public generally."

HONGKONG, SATURDAY, APRIL 13, 1907.

LORD CROMER.

His resignation of Lord Cromer, while not altogether unexpected, brought it

British Government face to face with a delicate problem. For a quarter of a century Lord Cromer has been, literally, the power behind the Khedive's throne.

As we stated a few days ago the task has been anything but a grateful one and it has been rumoured more than once that Lord Cromer had expressed a desire to be relieved of his office.

Although Sir Edward Grey heartily supported him when the trouble over the Denshaw execution occurred it can hardly be that the British Agent in Egypt has lately felt such entire confidence that the Government would steadily uphold him as he did when the Unionists were in power. It is no secret that the British Prime Minister and many members of the Cabinet disapprove of our position, apropos Egypt.

Lord Cromer has the reputation of being a zealous and masterful man and it may easily be imagined, although he declares that such has not been the case, that he would not tolerate the pressure which the Government may have been forced, through the insistence of some of its radical supporters, to bring to bear upon him. This of course is merely supposition. It may be that Lord Cromer's health has really given way—he is not a young man and the climate of Egypt is not particularly salubrious. In any event the position of British Agent in Egypt has been rendered vacant. The task of finding a suitable man for the post has been none too easy. Possibly Lord Curzon may have been given the refusal of the Agency. His recent experience in India has however, probably satisfied him for the time being, with pro-consularships or their equivalent, and the easier and more attractive prospects which Home politics open to him may have decided him not to again take up the burden. The appointment of Sir Eldon Gorst, who has had wide experience in Egypt, will go far to quell the fears of those who would foresee very real danger if a weak man were to succeed which might arise, but a weaker man might, by taking the line of least resistance, have helped to destroy the fabric which Lord Cromer has so indefatigably striven to raise.

LOCAL AND COAST NEWS.

The German Mail of the 13th March was delivered in London on the 12th April.

The trouble with the Philippines is that in the matter of self-government every man wants to be the self, says the Mindanao Herald.

The Arsenal outside the eastern barrier of Kirin and the forts at Lienhu which were occupied by Russian troops during the Russo-Japanese War, have been returned to China.

The Viceroy of the Mincho Province has submitted a memorial to the Throne stating the advisability of transferring the control of the Foochow Naval Arsenal to Mr. Hu Kuo-Hen, and it is hoped that a high official will be sent as superintendent.

A proposal is on foot for the creation of a Special Finance Committee, the business of which will be to draw up a Budget for China. Grand-Councillors Na Tung and Lu Chuen-ling are spoken of as probable President and Vice-President respectively.

Over twenty members of the Peking

Syndicate have asked the Governor of Shansi for passports with which they intend to make a tour throughout Shansi

Province, but the Governor fearing that people may suspect them if they travel in such a large number will not issue the Wai-wu passport which the syndicate should be furnished with by the British Minister, and the members requested to travel separately.

The Zigzags.

The Zigzags are giving a good entertainment at the Theatre Royal. The programme is being repeated to-night.

May Road.

A new road from Magazine Gap Road to the Peak Road near Queen's Gardens has been named May Road. It is not yet open to traffic.

Instead of Cement.

It is reported in Japan that kono (a volcanic ash) can be employed as a substitute for builders' cement. Large quantities have been found in the district of Yokohama, near Kamata, says the Nagasaki Press, and a brisk demand for it has been created by the great increase in the price of cement. Hitherto the business has been conducted on a very small scale but a company will shortly be formed with a capital of one million yen to develop the industry. Dr. Hiraga, of Osaka, recently inspected the district and he reports that the prospects of the company are distinctly good.
